The image is a screenshot of a web browser displaying the sign-up page for Insider Focus. The browser window has a grey title bar and address bar. The page features a large header image with a colorful, abstract background and the Insider Focus logo (a red circle with 'If' inside). Below the header, the main heading reads 'Sign up for your account'. The sign-up form is divided into two columns. The left column contains four input fields: 'First Name' (with 'James' entered), 'Last Name' (with 'Wesch' entered), 'E-mail' (with 'JamesWesch@teleworm.us' entered), and 'Password' (with 'xxxxxxxxxx' entered and a 'Show' checkbox). Below these fields is a red button labeled 'Sign up >>' with a dashed green border and a mouse cursor hovering over it. The right column has a red heading 'Or sign up with your Google or Facebook account', followed by a paragraph explaining that users can link their accounts and that data is private. Below this are two buttons: a red one for 'Sign up with Google' and a blue one for 'Sign up with Facebook'. A vertical line with a circle containing the word 'or' separates the two columns. At the bottom of the right column, a paragraph states that by creating an account, users agree to the 'Terms of Use' and 'Privacy Policy', both of which are underlined and blue. The footer of the page includes the Insider Focus logo and tagline 'Creatively Managing Conversations', followed by the copyright notice '©2001-2014 All Rights Reserved. InsiderFocus@' and a link to 'Privacy and Terms'.
